Gospel Meditation

September 19, 2021 | 25TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

"Jesus, give me the heart of a servant. Give me your heart of love."

Jesus said to His disciples to focus on being servants, not on becoming great. But then instead of going deeper into his teaching about serving, he pivoted to the theme of receiving a child in his name. So why did Jesus change the subject? He didn't. He just had a different definition than we do. Like the disciples, we might think of service in terms of quantity and impact. But that's not how Jesus sees it. If you lead a Bible study with fifty people and your neighbor leads one with five people, that doesn't necessarily make you a better servant. If you are spending all your free time helping out in numerous parish ministries and your neighbor is able to give up only one extra hour a week that doesn't automatically mean you're more of a servant. What makes you a servant? Your willingness to welcome Jesus no matter how he comes to you. If you're willing to "waste" your time with a child or any other vulnerable person, you're a servant. If you're willing to imitate Jesus' humility as he washed his disciples' feet, you're a servant. If you're willing to imitate his compassion as he stood up for a woman caught in adultery, you're a servant.

Jesus promised that those who become "the last of all and the servant of all" are the "first" (Mark 9:35). May we all learn how to live in the humility and lowliness of Christ.

The change to which the liturgy invites us is the change from God. Develop a program that helps me grow in the spiritual life and in the ecclesial mission of the Family. The three friends of the Parish Mr. Pedro, Mr. Vicente, and Mr. Héctor motivate us to always be servants of Christ.
I thank God for the entire catechesis group. Like every year, this Catechetical Sunday motivates us a lot to give thanks for all the catechists of children and young people. Let us pray together with Saint John Bosco to give thanks for the teachers of Religious Education. I wish for our Parish to always have a good education team. Children and young people help me pray for Your Parents and for all the teachers of the Saint John Bosco Education Center. May God bless our Parish.

Servir es el estilo habitual del ser cristiano

Los textos litúrgicos de este domingo indican que Jesús con su persona, con su enseñanza y su vida ha traído un cambio al mundo del hombre. En la Primera Lectura, al impío que no entiende ni acepta la vida del justo se le pide implícitamente un cambio de actitud. El texto del Evangelio por su parte sostiene que los discípulos de Jesús necesitan cambiar de mentalidad ante las enseñanzas sorprendentes de su Maestro. Y en la Segunda Lectura, Santiago propone a los cristianos un programa espiritual que implica un cambio en el estilo de vida que antes llevaban. Para ser discípulo de Cristo debemos cambiar algo por tener a Dios en el lugar principal. El Bautismo y la Eucaristía reestructuran al hombre por dentro, le infunden un nuevo modo de ser y un principio nuevo de actuación. En ello esta la base del cambio de vida, pero este cambio requiere gracia de Dios, trabajo humano, tiempo para que las nuevas estructuras sean vitalmente asimiladas y configuren día tras día, acción tras acción, el comportamiento humano. Cambiar la vida es la gran tarea del cristiano, llevada a cabo con constancia y entusiasmo. El cambio al que la liturgia nos invita es el cambio desde Dios. Elaborar un programa que me ayude a crecer en la vida espiritual y en la misión eclesial de la Familia. Los tres seres amigos de la Parroquia, Sr. Pedro, Sr. Vicente, y Sr. Héctor nos motiven a ser servidores de Cristo siempre.

Según el criterio de Jesús, miles y miles de hombres y mujeres anónimos, de rostro desconocido, a quienes nadie hará homenaje alguno, pero que se desviven en el servicio sencillo y desinteresado a los demás. Hombres y mujeres que no viven para su éxito. Su vida es un misterio de entrega y desinterés. Saben vivir más allá de sus propios intereses. Sin hacer cálculos. Sin medir mucho los riesgos. Hombres y mujeres que saben poner su vida a disposición de otros. Actúan movidos por su bondad.

Doy las gracias a Dios por todo el grupo de catequesis. Como todos los años este Domingo Catequético, nos motiva mucho para dar las gracias por todos los catequistas de los niños y jóvenes. Oremos junto con San Juan Bosco para dar las gracias por los maestros de la Educación Religiosa. Deseo para que nuestra Parroquia tenga siempre buen equipo de la educación. Los niños y jóvenes ayúdenme orar por Vuestros Padres y por todos los maestros del centro de la educación de San Juan Bosco. Que Dios Bendiga nuestra Parroquia.

Say the Word and My Soul Shall Be Healed

Hope Never Fails

In Christ Is Alive, Pope Francis tells us, "If you...feel weak, weary or disillusioned, ask Jesus to renew you. With him, hope never fails...Jesus, brimming with life, wants to help you make your youth worthwhile. In this way, you will not deprive the world of the contribution that you alone can make, in all your uniqueness and originality."

Di la Palabra y Mi Alma Será Sanada

La esperanza nunca falla

En Cristo está vivo, el Papa Francisco nos dice: "Si ... te sientes débil, cansado o desilusionado, pídele a Jesús que te renueve. Con él, la esperanza nunca falla ... Jesús, rebosante de vida, quiere ayudarte a hacer tu vida. la juventud vale la pena. De esta manera, no privarás al mundo de la contribución que solo tú puedes hacer, en toda tu singularidad y originalidad ".

Thank you, Catechists!

Our dear Catechists, Your vocation as a catechist is one of the most difficult vocations in the Church. We are aware that on top of your full-time commitments to your respective families and jobs, you devote so much time and energy studying, preparing for your Faith Formation class week after week, researching new and creative lessons to make teaching relevant, trying out different ways to get the attention of kids most of whom would rather be somewhere else texting or playing video games. You compete with soccer practice, shopping, piano lessons, and a TV and technological culture that considers religion as last priority.

Despite all these challenges, you keep at it. You take to heart your vocation to help parents prepare our children to live a happy, faith-filled life...and lead them to heaven. Indeed, our Parish cannot succeed without you. Accept our sincere gratitude for the gift of your person, your faith, your dedication, your love for the children entrusted to your care. We pray that God will supply all your needs according to His riches in glory in Christ Jesus (Philippians 4:19).

¡Gracias, Catequistas!

Queridos catequistas, vuestra vocación de catequista es una de las vocaciones más difíciles de la Iglesia. Somos conscientes de que además de sus compromisos de tiempo completo con sus respectivas familias y trabajos, dedican mucho tiempo y energía a estudiar, a prepararse para su clase de Formación en la Fe semana tras semana, a investigar lecciones nuevas y creativas para que la enseñanza sea relevante, a probar diferentes formas de llamar la atención de los niños, la mayoría de los cuales preferirían estar en otro lugar enviando mensajes de texto o jugando videojuegos. Compites con la práctica de fútbol, las compras, las lecciones de piano y una cultura televisiva y tecnológica que considera la religión como la última prioridad.

A pesar de todos estos desafíos, sigues así. Te tomas en serio tu vocación de ayudar a los padres a preparar a nuestros hijos para vivir una vida feliz y llena de fe ... y llevarlos al cielo. De hecho, nuestra parroquia no puede tener éxito sin ustedes. Acepta nuestro más sincero agradecimiento por el don de tu persona, tu fe, tu dedicación, tu amor por los niños confiados a tu cuidado. Oramos para que Dios satisfaga todas sus necesidades de acuerdo con sus riquezas de él en gloria en Cristo Jesús (Filipenses 4:19).

Una Hora por la Evangelización de nuestra Parroquia
One Hour for the Evangelization of our Parish

Invitamos a toda la comunidad a participar en este mes tan importante para nuestra Parroquia.
We invite the entire community to participate in this very important month for our Parish.

EVANGELIZATION means God's instrument

What marvels surround our work in the service of God's word! We are instruments of the Holy Spirit; God is so humble that he uses us to spread his word. We become his voice, once we have listened carefully to the word coming from his mouth. We place his word on our lips in order to bring it to the world. He accepts the offering of our prayer and through it he communicated himself to everyone we meet. - Pope Benedict XVI

EVANGELIZACION significa el instrumento de Dios

¡Qué maravillas rodean nuestro trabajo al servicio de la palabra de Dios! Somos instrumentos del Espíritu Santo; Dios es tan humilde que nos usa para difundir su palabra. Nos convertimos en su voz, una vez que hemos escuchado con atención la palabra que sale de su boca. Ponemos su palabra en nuestros labios para llevarla al mundo. Acepta la ofrenda de nuestra oración y a través de ella se comunica a todos los que nos encontramos.

- Papa Benedicto XVI
