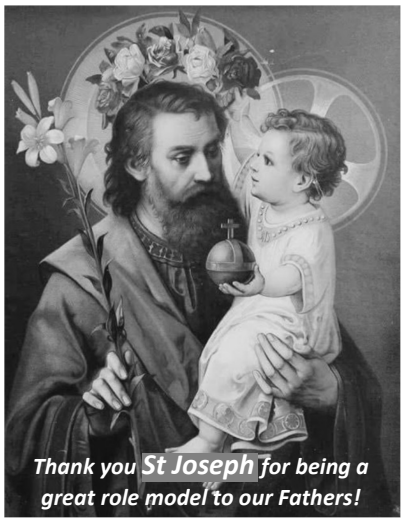
Gospel Meditation

June 20, 2021 | 12TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Calmed by the Presence of Christ



Some months ago I began to feel the presence of God less than before. At first I thought of various things, fearing that they were the reason why the Lord had withdrawn from me, [but] the Lord made me realize that I should concentrate on living him and believing in his love. I then promised Jesus that I would never doubt his love. And I believe that love has continued to guide me, though less sensibly, and to make me understand many other things…

I said that I experience the presence of God less, but it would be better to say that I now experience it in another way. Formerly, I experienced and enjoyed the tenderness of the divine arms carrying me; but now, without ceasing to believe that he still carries me, I experience the holiness of God and my own nothingness. My whole prayer is to ask mercy, grace, and pardon. Many times, I meditate on the Miserere (Ps 51), when the Lod lets me do so, but at other times I do nothing but remain quiet in my nothingness, and silence is my supplication. If at times I fear I may not have done what I ought or have displeased the Lord somehow by working against the Spirit, I realize once that such is not the case. They were faults and imperfections that did not penetrate to the depths of my soul; the mercy of God consumes them, and I do not lose my peace and quiet.

There are moments when it seems that a great torrent of water is confined in my heart, and it wants to gush forth with great force. Then I don't know what to gust forth with great force. Then I don't know what to do; I feel foolish and can only say: "O Jesus, give me love." I go to Mary and say to her "My Mother, teach me how to live Jesus. Give me the love of your heart. In order to love him as much as you loved him and still love him. My Mother, give me love, for I suffer greatly."

Sometimes in recreation the nuns ask me about spiritual things. I only know that in loving God one is blessed and lacks nothing and understands everything, although one may not know how to express it.

Father's Day, World Refuge Day and Summer begins –an excellent moment to say help guide us to the homes of our Parish. May God bless the Homes of the Fathers of America.

La Communidad y dia del Señor

Hoy celebramos día de los Padres, Jornada Mundial de los Refugiados e Inicio del Verano. La Presencia de Cristo en la historia.

La Liturgia de hoy esta dominada por la narración de la tempestad calmada. El relato de Marcos aparece como la continuación ideal de al Primera Lectura. Al desahogo de Job, que pide explicaciones de su sufrimiento, Dios responde recordando su propia omnipotencia, que todo lo domina, también las fuerzas de la naturaleza: ¿Quién ha encerrado entre dos puertas el mar?

En un ritmo a contrapunto, el relato del lago coloca a Dios y al hombre frente a frente: Cristo y su señorío, frente al hombre y su miedo. Los pescadores de Galilea se resignan, deponen sus fuerzas y se dejan dominar por el miedo, hasta llegar a la completa consternación cuando ven que Jesús duerme: ¿No te importa que perezcamos? Esta es la acusación que le hacen, interrumpiendo el sueño del Maestro. Piensan que le resulta ajeno el drama que sufren, como sucede a muchos hombres en la historia. Por este "alejamiento" de Cristo del propio drama, los hombres miden su fe: los discípulos de ayer, como los de hoy, viven en la fe en la medida en que perciben a Cristo como presencia de la vida y en la vida, jamás extraño a ella. Olvidan que la vida esta en las manos del Señor y algunas veces presumen de estar como "exonerados" de las pruebas. En consecuencia, con dificultad vivirán una experiencia dramática como experiencia de fe, hasta llegar a una total confianza en el Señor, si en el tiempo de los consuelos no se desapegan de esto.

El Señor reprueba no tanto el miedo, muy humano, como la incapacidad de fiarse de Él por la falta de fe. Piensan que esta ausente, porque les falta un verdadero conocimiento de Cristo, como novedad autentica y definitiva de la vida. ¿Dónde esta la medida de esta confianza, si no en la pregunta final de los discípulos, que reconocen lo que ha sucedido y se preguntan ¿Quién es este? La garantía de la salvación es estar con Él, en la barca, a pesar de la tormenta.

Pido a Jesucristo que esté presente en la barca de cada hogar, donde los Padres junto con la esposa deben dar la seguridad de la vida para los hijos de la familia. ¡¡Que Dios Padre, bendiga a todos los Padres de Familia!! Amados Padres del hogar sean siempre amigos de Jesucristo.

Happy Father's Day!

Heavenly Father, you entrusted your Son Jesus, the child of Mary, to the care of Joseph, an earthly father. Bless all fathers as they care for their families. St. Joseph pray for all our father, Amen

¡Feliz Día del Padre!

Padre celestial, confiaste a tu Hijo Jesús, el hijo de María, al cuidado de José, un padre terrenal. Bendice a todos los padres en el cuidado de sus familias. San José reza por todo nuestro padre, Amén.
