Parish News

March 01, 2026 | SECOND SUNDAY OF LENT

Are you prepared to see the glory of the Lord and to share in his glory as well? God made a promise to Abraham that he would make him a channel of great blessing not only to his own family and future descendants but to all the families of the earth as well (Genesis 12:3)! The condition for the fulfillment of this promise was simple and straightforward - "Go from your family and country to the land that I will show you" (Genesis 12:1). Abraham not only believed in God's promise, he promptly obeyed and did as the Lord commanded him. God chose Abraham as his instrument of blessing - that through him and his descendants would come the Messiah, the Lord Jesus Christ who would reveal the glory and blessing of God's kingdom and bring salvation for all who would call upon his name.

¿Estás preparado para ver la gloria del Señor y compartirla también? Dios le prometió a Abraham que lo convertiría en un canal de gran bendición no solo para su familia y sus futuros descendientes, sino también para todas las familias de la tierra (Génesis 12:3). La condición para el cumplimiento de esta promesa era simple y directa: «Vete de tu parentela y de tu tierra a la tierra que yo te mostraré» (Génesis 12:1). Abraham no solo creyó en la promesa de Dios, sino que obedeció de inmediato e hizo lo que el Señor le ordenó. Dios lo eligió como su instrumento de bendición: a través de él y sus descendientes vendría el Mesías, el Señor Jesucristo, quien revelaría la gloria y la bendición del reino de Dios y traería salvación a todos los que invocaran su nombre.

WHY DON'T WE SING ALLELUIA DURING LENT?

The "Alleluia" is omitted during Lent to emphasize the season's penitential, reflective, and solemn character, acting as a "fast" for the liturgy. By removing this joyful praise, the Church creates a period of anticipation and mourning, mirroring Christ's 40 days in the desert and preparing for the ultimate joy of Easter. Key reasons for this omission include: Penitential Focus: Lent is a time for repentance, reflection, and self-denial, which contrasts with the celebratory nature of "Alleluia" (Praise the Lord). Symbolic "Burial": The "Alleluia" is considered "buried" or removed to signify the somber journey to the cross. Building Anticipation: Removing the word highlights its return on Easter Sunday, making its return more meaningful and joyous. Liturgical Discipline: Just as believers abstain from certain foods, the Church fasts from specific, joyous songs and prayers (like the Gloria) to focus on prayer and repentance.

El "Aleluia" se omite durante la Cuaresma para enfatizar el carácter penitencial, reflexivo y solemne del tiempo, actuando como un "ayuno" para la liturgia. Al eliminar esta alegre alabanza, la Iglesia crea un período de anticipación y duelo, que refleja los 40 días de Cristo en el desierto y prepara para la alegría suprema de la Pascua. Las principales razones de esta omisión incluyen: Enfoque penitencial: La Cuaresma es un tiempo de arrepentimiento, reflexión y abnegación, lo que contrasta con el carácter celebratorio del "Aleluia" (Alabado sea el Señor). Entierro simbólico: El "Aleluia" se considera "enterrado" o eliminado para representar el sombrío camino hacia la cruz. Generando anticipación: Eliminar la palabra resalta su regreso el Domingo de Pascua, haciéndolo más significativo y alegre. Disciplina litúrgica: Así como los creyentes se abstienen de ciertos alimentos, la Iglesia ayuna de canciones y oraciones específicas y alegres (como el Gloria) para centrarse en la oración y el arrepentimiento.
