April 26, 2026 | FOURTH SUNDAY OF EASTER

What can shepherding teach us about God and our relationship with him? At the end of each day the shepherd brought his sheep into shelter.

They knew the voice of their shepherd and came at his beckoning. So familiar was the shepherd and his sheep, that each was called by a distinct name. In the winter the sheep were usually brought to a communal village shelter which was locked and kept secure by a guardian. In the summer months the sheep were usually kept out in the fields and then gathered into a fold at night which was guarded by a shepherd throughout the night. He was literally the door through which the sheep had to pass.

¿Qué puede enseñarnos el pastoreo acerca de Dios y de nuestra relación con Él? Al final de cada día, el pastor llevaba a sus ovejas a un refugio. Ellas reconocían la voz de su pastor y acudían a su llamado. Tan grande era la familiaridad entre el pastor y sus ovejas, que cada una de ellas era llamada por un nombre propio. En invierno, las ovejas solían ser llevadas a un refugio comunitario en la aldea, el cual permanecía cerrado con llave y bajo la custodia de un guardián. Durante los meses de verano, las ovejas solían permanecer en los campos y, al caer la noche, eran reunidas en un redil que era vigilado por un pastor a lo largo de toda la noche. Él era, literalmente, la puerta por la cual las ovejas debían pasar.
