What is the mean of being a Catechist

Being a catechist means serving as a person of faith who "echoes" the Word of God and teaches the beliefs and traditions of the church to children, teens, or adults.

Core Responsibilities

. Being a witness: Acting as a role model who demonstrates what it means to follow Jesus Christ before teaching about Him.

. Handing on faith: Passing down church teachings and scripture for sacramental preparation (such as First Communion, Confirmation, or the OCIA/RCIA process).

Accompanying others: Walking beside individuals as they grow in their personal relationship with God and apply faith to daily life.
